

Choose Your Fortune

Who doesn't love opening up a fortune cookie and discovering the universe's message or plans for you? In this simple activity, students will create their own personal message or future goal, making this a great activity for the beginning of the school year. Instruct your students to write their personal goal or positive message on the fortune cookie image.

